

TOGETHER IN FAITH

We extend a warm welcome to everyone to worship today

‘We are God’s people: unconditionally loved by God. Following our calling, we seek to reflect God’s love everywhere, in all that we are and in all that we do’

Matthew 9: 35 – 10: 8

THEME: How to live compassionately in our world

Sometimes a healing word is comfort:
easing the grieved or anxious heart,
giving assurance of our caring, treasuring each and every part.

Come, break the silence! Let us tell
the Word that makes us free and well.

Sometimes a healing word remembers:
calling up days of joy or pain,
letting the past renew the present,
till hope can mend and move again.
Sometimes a healing word is angry:
giving a name to discontent,
shining a light on sin and grievance,
calling a people to repent.

Sometimes a healing word takes chances:
going where no one yet has been,
facing the dangers of the desert,
hoping for shelter at the inn.
Sometimes a healing word will listen:
hearing the voiceless into speech, letting the pattern of the story move us to learn what it can teach.

Come, break the silence! Let us tell
the Word that makes us free and well.
